

PROPERTY DISPOSITION GUIDELINES OF
STATE OF NEW YORK MUNICIPAL BOND BANK AGENCY, ESTABLISHING STANDARDS
FOR THE DISPOSITION AND REPORTING
OF PROPERTY BY THE STATE OF NEW YORK MUNICIPAL BOND BANK
AGENCY AND BY ITS SUBSIDIARY THE TOBACCO SETTLEMENT FINANCING CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

1. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE AND APPLICABILITY

- a. Statement of Purpose. These Guidelines are adopted pursuant to the provisions of Title 5-A of Article 9 of the Public Authorities Law, as guidelines of the State of New York Municipal Bond Bank Agency, (the “Agency”) and, in accordance therewith, are to be reviewed and approved annually by the Directors of the Agency. The Agency shall file every year, on or before the thirty-first day of March of such year with the Office of the State Comptroller a copy of the Guidelines most recently reviewed and approved by the Agency, including the name of the Agency’s designated Contracting Disposition Officer. At the time of filing the Guidelines with the Comptroller, the Agency shall post the Guidelines on the Agency’s internet web site.
- b. Applicability. These Guidelines apply to the disposition of certain personal property, and of real property of the Agency.
- c. Title. Outside of this document, these Guidelines may be referred to as the “Property Disposition Guidelines” and herein may be referred to as “Guidelines.”
- d. Principles and Practical Application. These Guidelines are intended to be modeled consistently with and reflect the same principles as similar guidelines to be adopted by the State of New York Mortgage Agency and the New York State Housing Finance Agency. It is expected that the operational assets, if any, owned by the Tobacco Settlement Financing Corporation, a subsidiary of the Agency, when disposed of, will be disposed of according to these Guidelines.
- e. Contract Approval Requirements. The requirements of these Guidelines are in addition to the requirements for approval of certain contracts found in the Agency’s By-Laws, and set forth herein below. The By-Laws require that except as otherwise provided by resolution of the Agency, any expenditure involving an estimated amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more shall be authorized prior to its approval by no less than four Members, and expenditures involving an estimated amount of less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) may be approved by either the Executive Director or any two Authorized Signatories. In order to be consistent with the approach taken in the Consolidated Procurement Guidelines when dealing with procurements in excess of $100,000 or exceeding one year in duration, all contracts for dispositions of real and personal property, where compensation is expected to be $100,000 or more, as well as any contracts for dispositions to be exercised over a period of more than one year, shall require initial approval of the Directors of the Agency.

ARTICLE III

3. PROPERTY INVENTORY

Inventory Control Practices.

The Agency intends that it should have a continuing practice to maintain adequate inventory controls and accountability systems for all Property under its control, including personal property that does not come within the definition of Property under these Guidelines. As part of such practice, the Agency will periodically inventory such Property to determine which Property shall be Disposed of, and will produce a written report of such Property in accordance with subdivision 3 of Title 5-A of the Public Authorities Law. The Agency will transfer or Dispose of such Property as promptly as possible, in accordance with subdivision 3 of title 5-A of the Public Authorities Law.

ARTICLE IV

4. PROPERTY DISPOSITIONS

- a. Prompt Disposition of Property in Accordance with Guidelines. The Agency shall promptly Dispose of any Property of which it has determined it should dispose in accordance with these Guidelines and this Article. The Agency shall dispose of any personal property that does not come within the definition of Property under these Guidelines in accordance with procedures which the Agency shall prepare and follow in order to effect the prompt and cost-efficient disposal of such personal property.
- b. Supervision and Direction by Contracting Disposition Officer. The Contracting Disposition Officer shall have supervision and direction over the disposition of Property of the Agency.
- c. Disposition either by the Agency or by the Sales by the Commissioner. Property to be disposed of shall be disposed of either by the Agency in accordance herewith, or, where it has been deemed advantageous to the State, the Agency may enter into an agreement with the Commissioner where under the Commissioner may dispose of Property of the Agency under terms and conditions agreed to by the Agency and the Commissioner. In disposing of such Property, the Commissioner shall be bound by the terms of Title 5-A of the Public Authorities Law and any references to Contracting Disposition Officer thereunder shall be deemed to refer to the Commissioner.
- d. Custody and Control. The custody and control of Property of the Agency, pending its disposition, and the Disposal of such Property shall be performed by the Agency or by the Commissioner when so authorized under c. above.
- e. Method of Disposition. The Agency may Dispose of Property for not less than the fair market value of such Property by sale, exchange, or transfer, for cash, credit, or other property, with or without warranty, and upon such other terms and conditions as the Contracting Disposition Officer deems proper, and it may execute such documents for the transfer of title or other interest in Property and take such other action as it deems necessary or proper to dispose of such Property under the provisions of these Guidelines subject to the following:

- i. Requirement for Appraisal. There shall be no disposition of real property, any interest in real property, or any other Property which because of its unique nature is not subject to fair market pricing unless an appraisal of the value of such real property or Property has been made by an independent appraiser and included in the record of the transaction.
- ii. Requirement for Advertised Bid Procedure. Except as provided in paragraph iii below, Disposals of Property or contracts for Disposals of Property by the Contracting Disposition Officer shall occur only after publicly advertising for bids. Whenever public advertising for bids is required hereunder, the following procedures shall be followed:
  - (1) an advertisement for bids shall be made at such time prior to the Disposal or contract, through such methods, and on such terms and conditions as shall permit full and free competition consistent with the value and nature of the Property;
  - (2) all bids shall be publicly disclosed at a time and place to be stated in the advertisement; and
  - (3) the award shall be made with reasonable promptness by notice to the responsible bidder whose bid, conforming to the invitation for bids, will be most advantageous to the State, price and other factors considered; provided, that all bids may be rejected when it is in the public interest to do so.
- iii. Exceptions from Advertised Bid Procedure. Disposals and contracts for Disposal of Property may be negotiated or made by public auction, without following the advertised bid procedures set forth in (ii) above, provided that there is such competition as is feasible under the circumstances, if:
  - (1) the personal property involved is of a nature and quantity which,
    - (a) if Disposed of under the advertised bid procedures set forth in (ii) above, would adversely affect the State or local market for such Property, and
    - (b) the estimated fair market value of such Property and other satisfactory terms of Disposal can be obtained by negotiation;
  - (2) the fair market value of the Property does not exceed fifteen thousand dollars;
  - (3) bid prices after advertising therefor are not reasonable, either:
    - (a) as to all or some part of the Property, or
    - (b) have not been independently arrived at in open competition;
  - (4) the Disposal will be to the State or any political subdivision, and the estimated fair market value of the Property and other satisfactory terms of Disposal are obtained by negotiation;

- (5) the Disposal is for an amount less than the estimated fair market value of the Property, the terms of such Disposal are obtained by public auction or negotiation, the Disposal of the Property is intended to further the public health, safety or welfare or an economic development interest of the State or a political subdivision (to include but not limited to, the prevention or remediation of a substantial threat to public health or safety, the creation or retention of a substantial number of job opportunities, or the creation or retention of a substantial source of revenues, or where the Agency's enabling legislation permits), the purpose and the terms of such Disposal are documented in writing and approved by resolution of the Directors of the Agency; or
- (6) such action is otherwise authorized by law.

iv. Requirement of Advance Explanatory Statements of Disposal by Negotiation and Distribution of such Statement.

- (1) An explanatory statement shall be prepared of the circumstances of each disposal of Property by negotiation of:
  - (a) any personal property which has an estimated fair market value in excess of fifteen thousand dollars;
  - (b) any real property that has an estimated fair market value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, except that any real property Disposed of by lease or exchange shall only be subject to clauses (c) through (e) of this subparagraph;
  - (c) any real property Disposed of by lease for a term of five years or less, if the estimated fair annual rent is in excess of one hundred thousand dollars for any of such years;
  - (d) any real property Disposed of by lease for a term of more than five years, if the total estimated rent over the term of the lease is in excess of one hundred thousand dollars; or
  - (e) any real property or real and related personal property Disposed of by exchange, regardless of value, or any property any part of the consideration for which is real property.
- (2) At least ninety days in advance of such Disposal, the above required explanatory statement shall be transmitted to:
  - (a) the State Comptroller
  - (b) the Director of the Division of the Budget
  - (c) the Commissioner, and
  - (d) the legislature,
- (3) A copy of the above explanatory statement thereof shall be preserved in the files of the Agency.

ARTICLE V

5. REPORTS

- a. Annual Inventory and Property Disposition Report.
- i. The Directors of the Agency shall annually approve an Annual Inventory and Property Disposition Report. Such annual report will include these Guidelines, which must, each year, be approved by the Directors before March 31st and which may receive such approval in conjunction with the approval of the Report. In addition to the Guidelines, such report shall contain an inventory listing:
  - (1) all real property of the Agency at the conclusion of the annual period covered by the report, and
  - (2) all Property of the Agency Disposed of during such period, including the price received by the Agency and the name of the purchaser for all such Property sold by the Agency during such period.
- ii. The Annual Inventory and Property Disposition Report, after being approved by the Directors, shall be delivered to:
  - (1) the State Comptroller
  - (2) the Director of the Division of the Budget
  - (3) the Commissioner, and
  - (4) the legislature,

ARTICLE VI

6. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

- a. Powers of Amendment. Any modification or amendment of these Guidelines may be made by a Supplemental Resolution adopted at any duly constituted Directors' or Members' meeting; provided, however, that no such modification or amendment shall abrogate the rights and duties of existing Agency contracts, the terms of which were established pursuant to these Guidelines; and further provided that the President and Chief Executive Officer may make non-material changes in these Guidelines.
- b. Supplementation with Procedural Handbooks, Practice Manuals and Other Directives. These Guidelines are only intended to provide the general framework or Agency Procurement practice. These Guidelines are not intended to preclude supplementation of the Guidelines through the promulgation of more specific procedural handbooks, practice manuals, or other directives and guidance as may be issued from time to time.

- c. No Recourse under These Guidelines. No provision of these Guidelines shall be the basis for any claim based upon these Guidelines against any Member, Officer or Employee of the Agency or the Agency itself.
- d. Effect upon Existing Agency Contracts. These Guidelines shall not abrogate the rights and duties of Agency contracts with third parties executed prior to the effective date of these Guidelines.
- e. Validity of Deed, bill of Sale, Lease, or Other Instrument. It is intended that these Guidelines shall not create any basis to invalidate or call into question any transfer of title by the Agency, and, in accordance with the provisions of Title 5-A, a deed, bill of sale, lease, or other instrument executed by or on behalf of the Agency, purporting to transfer title or any other interest in Property of the Agency under these Guidelines shall be conclusive evidence of compliance with the provisions of Title 5-A of the Public Authorities Law insofar as concerns title or other interest of any bona fide grantee or transferee who has given valuable consideration for such title or other interest and has not received actual or constructive notice of lack of such compliance prior to the closing.
