APPENDIX A

1. PURPOSE

This Appendix sets forth how your monthly rent will be determined, and the circumstances under which your monthly rent set forth on page ____, paragraph 6 of your lease may increase or decrease.

2. HOW RENTS ARE ESTABLISHED

All rent increases must have prior review and approval by the DHCR's Asset Management Unit. Every HOME-assisted unit is subject to rent limits designed to help make rents affordable to low - income households. The rents are published annually by HUD and limit the amount of rent which can be charged to a tenant. In order to further maintain the affordability of HOME projects under the supervision of the DHCR/HTFC, rent increases are required to be directly related to the project operating expenses.

3. INCREASES IN RENT

- A. Your monthly rent may increase each calendar year if approved by DHCR/HTF.
- B. Your monthly rent may also increase if your household's income increases.
- C. For a rent increase of 5% or more, the written tenant notification period depends on the length of occupancy:
 - 30 days' notice is required for a tenant who has occupied a unit for under a year and does not have a lease term of at least a year.
 - 60 days' notice is required for a tenant who has occupied a unit, or has a lease term, for more than one year but less than two years.
 - 90 days' notice is required for a tenant who has occupied a unit, or has a lease term, of more than two years

4. DECREASES IN RENT

You are not entitled to decreases in rent based on decreases to your income or decreases in rent subsidies, however, you should report such decreases to the Landlord. The Landlord may decrease your rent, but not below the amount determined by DHCR/HTF to be necessary to pay the expenses of the Project, if:

- A. Any such rent subsidy you are receiving is decreased. The monthly rent for your unit may be decreased accordingly at the discretion of the Landlord; or
- B. Your household's income is significantly reduced. Your monthly rent may be decreased accordingly at the discretion of the Landlord.
