- (2) Treatment of property. Agreement by the tenant that the owner may take, hold, or sell personal property of household members without notice to the tenant and a court decision on the rights of the parties. This prohibition, however, does not apply to an agreement by the tenant concerning disposition of personal property remaining in the housing unit after the tenant has moved out of the unit. The owner may dispose of this personal property in accordance with State law.
- (3) Excusing owner from responsibility. Agreement by the tenant not to hold the owner or the owner's agents legally responsible for any action or failure to act, whether intentional or negligent.

D. Termination of Tenancy. The owner may not terminate the tenancy or refuse to renew the lease of a tenant of rental housing assisted with HOME funds, except for serious or repeated violation of the terms and conditions of the lease; for violation of applicable Federal, State, or local law; for completion of the tenancy period for transitional housing or failure to follow any required transitional housing supportive services plan; or for other good cause. Good cause does not include an increase in the tenant's income or refusal of the tenant to purchase the housing. To terminate or refuse to renew tenancy, the owner must serve written notice upon the tenant specifying the grounds for the action at least 30 days before the termination of tenancy.

E. Tenant Reporting. The tenant is required to provide timely and accurate information to the owner to determine tenant eligibility at move-in and at annual recertification. A failure to provide such certification, verifications, and information in a timely manner, as reasonably requested by the owner, or any falsification or willful misrepresentation thereof, shall be deemed a material non-compliance with the lease.

F. Over Income Households. The parties to this Lease Addendum agree that the following rent restrictions apply for over income households: if the household income exceeds 80% of Area Median Income (AMI) as published by HUD while residing in a HOME assisted unit, the rents will no longer be based on the HOME rent limits, instead, upon the next annual recertification, the resident will be required to pay 30% of their adjusted income for rent.

G. Maintenance of the Unit and Inspections. The owner agrees to maintain the rental unit in good condition and must annually certify to NYS Homes and Community Renewal's Statewide Asset Management Unit (SAMU) that the unit is suitable for occupancy and meets Local Code requirements. SAMU will perform an on-site inspection in the first year after project completion and at least once every three years thereafter.

The signatures below certify that the offer of a one-year lease term has been extended by the owner and if any other lease terms are available, they have been disclosed at time of the initial lease agreement. The owner and tenant agree that the rental lease term has been agreed upon and accepted by both parties.
