To The Owner

A. When to Use This Form

1. This form is to be used to compute the Maximum Base Rent and Maximum Collectible Rent for a rent controlled apartment where there have been no adjustments (increases or decreases) to the Maximum Base Rent other than the Standardized Increase Factor. If an apartment has had rent adjustments, Notice Form RN-26-Long Form should be used to properly reflect the adjustments in the Maximum Base Rent.
2. If Notice Form RN-26-Long Form was used to calculate previous MBRs, Notice Form RN-26-Long Form must be used to calculate the 2022-23 MBR.

This rent increase is not collectible from any tenant who has a Division of Housing and Community Renewal (DHCR) rent reduction order currently in effect for failure to provide or maintain an essential service as defined in 9 NYCRR 2202.3(b)(2). The increase is only collectible as of the first rent payment date after the effective date of a rent restoration order issued by DHCR finding all such services to have been restored.

B. How To Use This Form

3. The owner must complete and sign a copy of this Notice and serve it upon the tenant of the subject apartment. A Master Building Rent Schedule (RMB-2022) listing the Maximum Base Rent and the Maximum Collectible Rent for all rent controlled housing accommodations in the subject building must be completed by the owner and submitted to DHCR within 60 days of the issuance of the 2022-23 Order of Eligibility or Computed Order of Eligibility.
4. If 2020-21 MBR increases were granted for subject building, start computation of the 2022 Maximum Base Rent on Part A, Line 1.

A tenant's challenge must be filed within thirty-five (35) days after receiving from the owner a copy of this Notice of Increase (Form RN-26S). Any party aggrieved by the challenge determination may file a Petition for Administrative Review (PAR) using Form RAR-2 within thirty-five (35) days of the challenge determination issue date.

To the Owner

1. This form is used for a building which received either a 2022-23 Order of Eligibility (Form RO-30 MBR) or a 2022-23 Computed Order of Eligibility (Form RO-30C MBR) issued by the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal (DHCR) authorizing Maximum Base Rent (MBR) increases effective prior to January 1, 2023. This form computes the 2023 Maximum Collectible Rent (MCR) and if necessary adjusts the 2022-23 Maximum Base Rent.
2. A signed copy of this Notice must be prepared and served on each rent controlled tenant of the subject building before any increase computed on the reverse side is collectible. Failure to serve this Notice within 60 days of January 1, 2023 or of the issue date of 2022-23 Order of Eligibility, whichever is later, causes this increase to be collectible prospectively only.
3. A 2023 Maximum Base Rent Master Building Rent Schedule Form RMB-2023 listing the rental information for all rent controlled apartments in the subject building must be filed with DHCR within 30 days after this Notice has been served on the tenant. Failure to file may result in revocation of this increase.
4. The information listed on the latest MBR Order of Eligibility must be used to complete this form even if the order is under challenge or Petition for Administrative Review. If a determination results in a corrected 2022 MBR Order, corrected copies of this Notice must be served on the tenants and a corrected Master Building Rent Schedule must be filed with DHCR.

To the Tenant

5. You must have been served previously with the following documents before this form can be used for computing any additional rent increases:
 A copy of 2022-23 Order of Eligibility (Form RO-30 MBR) or Computed Order of Eligibility (Form RO-30C MBR) containing the DHCR Docket Number, plus
 A Notice of Increase in 2022-23 Maximum Base Rent and Maximum Collectible Rent Computation (Short Form) RN-26S or (Long Form) RN-26.
6. If you do not understand or agree with the owner's computations, request an explanation from the owner. If you do not receive a satisfactory explanation, you may submit a "Tenant's Complaint of Rent and/or Other Specific Overcharges in Rent Controlled Apartments" (DHCR Form RA-89C).
7. Any appropriate retroactive increase in rent under this Notice (see Number 2 above) shall be paid in installments equal to the number of months between January 1, 2023 and your next rent payment date. At your option, you may pay the retroactive amount in a lump sum.

To the Senior Citizen and Disabled Tenants

Senior citizens and disabled tenants with currently valid Rent Increase Exemption Orders (SCRIE or DRIE) need not pay that part of the rent increase which causes the Maximum Collectible Rent to exceed one-third of their monthly disposable income. A currently valid Rent Increase Exemption Order is renewed automatically for six months, during which time the tenant must have completed and filed a Renewal Application with the New York City Department of Finance.

Senior citizens including Supplemental Security Income (SSI) recipients, 62 or older and disabled tenants 18 or older with an aggregate household net disposable income of $50,000 or less, who do not have rent increase exemption orders may be eligible for an exemption. Contact the NYC Department of Finance at 311 for further information.

A currently valid Rent Increase Exemption Order is renewed automatically for six months during which time the tenant must have completed and filed a Renewal Application with the New York City Department of Finance.

 For Modification of 2022 MBR To Include Appropriate Labor Cost Adjustment

Subject Building: _____
 _____ Number and Street _____ Apartment or Room Number _____ City, State, Zip Code
 Effective Date of 2022-23 MBR Order of Eligibility: ____/____/____

This calculation adjusts the 2022 Maximum Base Rent (MBR) to reflect a labor component as of January 1, 2022 appropriate to the actual cost level for this building. This method avoids duplicating the average increases in labor costs over the last two years as they are already included in the overall Standardized Increase Factor.

Instructions

- a. This page is to be completed only if the latest Owner's Application For Increase-Maximum Rent-Labor Cost Adjustment (Section 2202.11) was filed with the Division of Housing & Community Renewal in 2020 or 2021 and a Master Order Increasing Maximum Rent (RO-33.8) was issued to the owner prior to January 1, 2022. If the latest Labor Cost Adjustment Application was filed prior to 2020, do not file this page because the 2022 Standardized Increase Factor modifies the prior MBR Modification for Labor.
- b. This page is not to be completed if an Order denying the Labor Cost Adjustment was issued.
- c. A completed copy of this form must be served on the tenant along with Notice Form RN-26-Long Form.
- d. A completed copy of this form along with the 2022 MBR Master Building Rent Schedule must be filed with the MBR Section within 60 days of the issuance date of the Order of Eligibility.

The calculations below should reflect the data and information from the latest Owner's Application For Increase-Maximum Rent-Labor Cost Adjustment (Section 2202.11) filed during 2020 or 2021 or any revisions resulting from administrative review (PAR) or audit review.

Part A

This Long Form is used to compute the Maximum Base Rent (MBR) for an apartment requiring the following MBR adjustments:

Owner paid for gas and/or electricity
 Rent adjustments after August 1, 1970 (Example: Major Capital Improvements, new equipment, etc.)

If none of these adjustments apply, use Notice Form RN-26S (Short Form).

If the Long Form was previously used to calculate adjustments to MBRs, you must use this form to calculate the 2022-23 MBR. If the 2022-23 MBR Order of Eligibility was effective before January 1, 2023, you should use form RN-26S to calculate adjusted MBRs and Maximum Collectible Rents (MCRs) effective January 1, 2023.

- a. Effective Date of 2022-23 MBR Order of Eligibility: _____ / _____ / _____
- b. 2022-23 MBR as Adjusted; enter from Part B, Line 8 -- Page 3 $ _____
 Adjusted Maximum Collectible Rent; enter from Part C, Line 13 -- Page 3 $ _____

To Senior Citizens and Disabled Tenants

- c. If the tenant has a valid Senior Citizen or Disability Rent Increase Exemption (SCRIE or DRIE) Order, the Maximum Collectible Rent is: $ _____ (Owner to enter amount actually collectible from tenant if tenant has a currently valid exemption).

Any person holding a currently valid Senior Citizen Rent Increase Exemption Order (SCRIE) or a Disability Rent Increase Exemption Order (DRIE) is not required to pay any portion of the rent increase indicated above which causes the monthly rent to exceed one-third of the tenant's monthly disposable income. A currently valid Rent Increase Exemption Order is renewed automatically for six months, during which time the tenant must have completed and filed a Renewal Application with the New York City Department of Finance.

Senior citizens including Supplemental Security Income (SSI) recipients, 62 or older and disabled tenants 18 or older with an aggregate household net disposable income of $50,000 or less, who do not have rent increase exemption orders may be eligible for an exemption. Contact the NYC Department of Finance at 311 for further information.

Instructions

- I. The owner must complete and sign a copy of this Notice and appropriate Attachments, if any, and serve them on the tenant of the subject apartment. Attachment RMBR-ATT, if appropriate, and a Master Building Rent Schedule (RMB-2022), listing the Maximum Base Rent and Maximum Collectible Rent for all controlled housing accommodations in the building must be completed and filed by the owner at the above address, within 60 days of the issuance of the 2022-23 Order of Eligibility.

This MCR increase is not collectible from any tenant who has a Division of Housing and Community Renewal (DHCR) Rent Reduction Order currently in effect for failure to provide or maintain an essential service as defined in Section 2202.3(b)(2) of the Rent and Eviction Regulations. The increase is only collectible as of the first rent payment date after the effective date of an order issued by DHCR finding all such essential services to have been restored.

- II. If 2020-21 MBR increases were granted for the building, start calculation of Adjusted 2022 Maximum Base Rent in Part B, Line 1

- III. If 2020-21 MBR increases were denied for the building and the last MBR increases were granted for:

- a. 2018-19; multiply the 2018-19 MBR by 1.220 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- b. 2016-17; multiply the 2016-17 MBR by 1.310 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- c. 2014-15; multiply the 2014-15 MBR by 1.436 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- d. 2012-13; multiply the 2012-13 MBR by 1.555 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- e. 2010-11; multiply the 2010-11 MBR by 1.677 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- f. 2008-09; multiply the 2008-09 MBR by 1.893 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- g. 2006-07; multiply the 2006-07 MBR by 2.007 to determine the 2022 MBR, or

- i. 2002-03; multiply the 2002-03 MBR by 2.545 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- j. 2000-01; multiply the 2000-01 MBR by 2.812 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- k. 1998-99; multiply the 1998-99 MBR by 2.933 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- l. 1996-97; multiply the 1996-97 MBR by 3.045 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- m. 1994-95; multiply the 1994-95 MBR by 3.136 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- n. 1992-93; multiply the 1992-93 MBR by 3.597 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
- o. 1990-91; multiply the 1990-91 MBR by 3.985 to determine the 2022 MBR, or
