TRAINING SPECIALIST 1

Albany, NY

New York State Homes and Community Renewal (HCR) fosters the creation and preservation of high-quality affordable housing, while working strategically to revitalize neighborhoods and communities throughout the Empire State. Under the leadership of Governor Kathy Hochul and Commissioner RuthAnne Visnuskas, HCR is a vibrant, innovative agency that integrates and leverages New York State's housing resources. We have offices in New York City, Albany, Buffalo and Syracuse, and employ a diverse workforce of professionals who are hard-working and committed to serving low and moderate income families. Our mission is far reaching, encompassing single and multifamily housing finance, home improvement, rent regulation, housing subsidies, and community development. We partner regularly with a variety of public and private stakeholders.

Achieving this mission requires a wide range of skills and backgrounds in public policy, administration, real estate, architecture, finance, law, and many other areas of expertise. We seek to provide a workplace environment that is productive, flexible, accountable, ethical, and caring. Our employees are empowered to make a difference where they live and work. We offer competitive pay and a comprehensive benefits package, including paid leave, health, dental, vision, retirement, and family-friendly policies.

The Office of Professional Services (OPS) is responsible for all administrative and support services, including Human Resources, Training and Professional Development, Policy Development, Competitive Procurement and Contract Management, Fiscal Planning, Accounting and Treasury Services, Facilities and Building Management Services, and Information Technology Services. OPS values professionals that enjoy working in a fast-paced environment and who have the skills required to effectively plan, direct, and coordinate HCR's wide array of support services across multiple payrolls.

RELATIONSHIPS WITH OTHERS

Agency Training and Development Specialist 1s have frequent oral communication with all levels of agency staff in determining and identifying individual and group training needs. Incumbents of positions in these classes inform agency staff of the availability of training and educational opportunities. They teach training courses which involve the presentation of practical and theoretical concepts.

Incumbents participate in discussions with other training positions and outside instructors to assess training courses and modify them in order to more effectively meet the needs of the agency staff.

NATURE OF SUPERVISION

Incumbents of positions in this class are usually supervised by an Agency Training and Development Specialist 2. Assignments are made in terms of basic agency training needs with suggestions of ways of meeting them. The incumbents are free to develop specific training courses within those needs, but such courses usually are approved by the supervisor and program administrators for adherence to training objectives before they are implemented. Incumbents are instructed in teaching techniques by their supervisors on their presentations and are evaluated by classroom observations and reviewing trainee evaluations.

Incumbents of this class generally have no supervisory responsibility. However, they may provide advice and assistance to Agency Training and Development Specialist Trainees and assign and review the work of a small clerical staff on a periodic basis.
