

To The Owner

A. When to Use This Form

1. This form is to be used to compute the Maximum Base Rent and Maximum Collectible Rent for a rent controlled apartment where there have been no adjustments (increases or decreases) to the Maximum Base Rent other than the Standardized Increase Factor. If an apartment has had rent adjustments, Notice Form RN-26-Long Form should be used to properly reflect the adjustments in the Maximum Base Rent.
2. If Notice Form RN-26-Long Form was used to calculate previous MBRs, Notice Form RN-26-Long Form must be used to calculate the 2024-25 MBR.

This rent increase is not collectible from any tenant who has a Division of Housing and Community Renewal (DHCR) rent reduction order currently in effect for failure to provide or maintain an essential service as defined in 9 NYCRR 2202.3(b)(2). The increase is only collectible as of the first rent payment date after the effective date of a rent restoration order issued by DHCR finding all such services to have been restored.

B. How To Use This Form

3. The owner must complete and sign a copy of this Notice and serve it upon the tenant of the subject apartment. A Master Building Rent Schedule (RMB-2024) listing the Maximum Base Rent and the Maximum Collectible Rent for all rent controlled housing accommodations in the subject building must be completed by the owner and submitted to DHCR within 60 days of the issuance of the 2024-25 Order of Eligibility or Computed Order of Eligibility.
4. If 2022-23 MBR increases were granted for subject building, start computation of the 2024 Maximum Base Rent on Part A, Line 1.
5. If 2022-23 MBR increases were denied for subject building, and your last MBR increases were granted for:
 - a. 2020-21; multiply the 2020-21 MBR by 1.196 to determine the 2024 MBR, or
 - b. 2018-19; multiply the 2018-19 MBR by 1.310 to determine the 2024 MBR, or

 - y. 1972-73; multiply the 1972-73 MBR by 11.362 to determine the 2024 MBR and enter the result on Part A, Line 3

6. If the building is being granted MBR increases for the first time, start the computation of the 2024 Maximum Base Rent on Part A, Line 3, using the Unadjusted 2024 Maximum Base Rent shown on the Computed Order of Eligibility - 2024-25 Maximum Base Rent, Form RO-30C MBR.

To The Tenant

1. If you do not understand or agree with the Owner's computations, request a clarification from the owner. If you do not receive a satisfactory explanation, you may submit a "Tenant's Complaint of Rent and/or other Specific Overcharges in Rent Controlled Apartments" (DHCR Form RA-89C.)
2. Challenges to the MBR Order must be filed at Gertz Plaza or any Borough Rent Office on challenge form RA-94 MBR. Challenges should be specific and should relate to lawful requirements, such as those related to certification and/or to whether the effective date of the order was correct. A tenant's challenge must be filed within thirty-five (35) days after receiving from the owner a copy of this Notice of Increase (Form RN-26S). Any party aggrieved by the challenge determination may file a Petition for Administrative Review (PAR) using Form RAR-2 within thirty-five (35) days of the challenge determination issue date.
3. Any appropriate retroactive increase in rent under the 2024-25 Order of Eligibility shall be paid in installments equal to the number of months between the effective date of the Order of Eligibility and your next rent payment date. At your option you may pay the entire retroactive amount in a lump sum.

Part C: Affirmation

To the Owner

1. This form is used for a building which received either a 2024-25 Order of Eligibility (Form RO-30 MBR) or a 2024-25 Computed Order of Eligibility (Form RO-30C MBR) issued by the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal (DHCR) authorizing Maximum Base Rent (MBR) increases effective prior to January 1, 2025. This form computes the 2025 Maximum Collectible Rent (MCR) and if necessary adjusts the 2024-25 Maximum Base Rent.
2. A signed copy of this Notice must be prepared and served on each rent controlled tenant of the subject building before any increase computed on the reverse side is collectible. Failure to serve this Notice within 60 days of January 1, 2025 or of the issue date of 2024-25 Order of Eligibility, whichever is later, causes this increase to be collectible prospectively only.
3. A 2025 Maximum Base Rent Master Building Rent Schedule Form RMB-2025 listing the rental information for all rent controlled apartments in the subject building must be filed with DHCR within 30 days after this Notice has been served on the tenant. Failure to file may result in revocation of this increase.
4. The information listed on the latest MBR Order of Eligibility must be used to complete this form even if the order is under challenge or Petition for Administrative Review. If a determination results in a corrected 2024 MBR Order, corrected copies of this Notice must be served on the tenants and a corrected Master Building Rent Schedule must be filed with DHCR.

To the Tenant

5. You must have been served previously with the following documents before this form can be used for computing any additional rent increases:
 A copy of 2024-25 Order of Eligibility (Form RO-30 MBR) or Computed Order of Eligibility (Form RO-30C MBR) containing the DHCR Docket Number, plus
 A Notice of Increase in 2024-25 Maximum Base Rent and Maximum Collectible Rent Computation (Short Form) RN-26S or (Long Form) RN-26.
6. If you do not understand or agree with the owner's computations, request an explanation from the owner. If you do not receive a satisfactory explanation, you may submit a "Tenant's Complaint of Rent and/or Other Specific Overcharges in Rent Controlled Apartments" (DHCR Form RA-89C).
7. Any appropriate retroactive increase in rent under this Notice (see Number 2 above) shall be paid in installments equal to the number of months between January 1, 2025 and your next rent payment date. At your option, you may pay the retroactive amount in a lump sum.

To the Senior Citizen and Disabled Tenants

Senior citizens and disabled tenants with currently valid Rent Increase Exemption Orders (SCRIE or DRIE) need not pay that part of the rent increase which causes the Maximum Collectible Rent to exceed one-third of their monthly disposable income. A currently valid Rent Increase Exemption Order is renewed automatically for six months, during which time the tenant must have completed and filed a Renewal Application with the New York City Department of Finance.

Senior citizens including Supplemental Security Income (SSI) recipients, 62 or older and disabled tenants 18 or older with an aggregate household net disposable income of $50,000 or less, who do not have rent increase exemption orders may be eligible for an exemption. Contact the NYC Department of Finance at 311 for further information.

Rent Increase Exemption Order (DRIE) is not required to pay any portion of the rent increase indicated above which causes the monthly rent to exceed one-third of the tenant's monthly disposable income. A currently valid Rent Increase Exemption Order is renewed automatically for six months during which time the tenant must have completed and filed a Renewal Application with the New York City Department of Finance.
